

Casting Call: Century Songbook Concert

The Segal Centre is excited to announce the upcoming Century Songbook, a multilingual musical retrospective of 100 years of Montreal's Jewish community. Through song and dance, the richness of Jewish life in this city will be celebrated on the Segal mainstage from November 26th to November 29th, 2017. (Four shows, dates below.)

We are looking for dedicated singers/actors to be part of this special Dora Wasserman Yiddish Theatre production, featuring music from across the century and in the many languages that make up our diverse community.

Rehearsal schedule:

Rehearsals are slated to take place on Sundays and Mondays from 7-10 pm, beginning on Sunday, Sept. 10th and running until the shows in late November (excluding the Jewish holidays)--approximately 22 rehearsal sessions.

Participating in this show requires a full commitment to the rehearsal schedule!

Tech week schedule:

Wed, Nov. 22nd - Sat. Nov. 25th.

Performance schedule:

Sunday, Nov. 26th, 2pm and 7 pm;

Mon. Nov. 27th, 8 pm.

Tues. Nov. 28th, 8 pm.

Wed. Nov. 29th, 8 pm.

If you are interested and able to commit to this schedule, we would love to hear from you!

Please note that while we appreciate everyone's interest, we won't be able to include everyone in this production (auditions may follow).

If you would like to participate, please be in touch with Segal Jewish Programs Manager, Sivan Slapak at sslapak@segalcentre.org, or at 514-655-7039.

Looking forward to hearing from you!
